

Artist Bio: (Kim Ng)

Kim Ng is a Malaysian artist based in Kuala Lumpur. Since 2002, he has been actively engaged in academia, teaching, and managing the Fine Art department. Kim Ng holds an honours Bachelor's degree in Fine Arts, which he obtained from London Guildhall University in the UK in 1996. He further pursued his education, earning two Master's degrees in Design and Media Arts from the University of Westminster in 1997 and an MA by Project from London Metropolitan University in 2002, both in London, UK.

Over the past three decades, Kim Ng has demonstrated his proficiency in multidisciplinary art. His artistic practice encompasses diverse mediums such as printmaking, mixed media painting, ceramics, sculpture, and installation art. With an impressive portfolio, he has held eight solo exhibitions at various local art galleries and spaces in Malaysia since 2000, in addition to participating in numerous group exhibitions.

Kim Ng's talent has garnered international recognition, as evidenced by his invitation to participate in the collateral event at the Venice Biennale in 2022. His work is being collected by private individuals and corporations both within and outside the country.

Beyond his local engagements, Kim Ng has actively participated in international art workshops and artist residencies in Taiwan, Thailand, and Malaysia. As a dedicated professional, he consistently seeks growth as an artist, enthusiastically embracing new challenges and pushing the boundaries of art-making.
