

IVAN LAM WAI HOE (B.1975)

Born in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, where he still lives and works. Ivan Lam graduated from the Maine College of Art USA with a Bachelors in Fine Art Painting in 1998. Starting off as a printmaker, he used silkscreen as a means to create works that dealt with colour fields and reflected international issues. In 2005, Ivan was regarded as the country's most relevant contemporary printmaker, having mastered the silkscreen with the back-breaking CMYK series (consisting only of 10 pieces). At this juncture, Ivan made the bold move of shifting his focus from printing to painting.

Ivan Lam's art career spans over 23 years, making significant contributions to contemporary Malaysian art through innovative practices in printmaking and contemporary painting. His use of resin adds a hyper-realistic layer to his works, exploring themes of duality, tension, and contradictions, while engaging with popular culture, current affairs, art history, and autobiography. The continuation of his artistic journey includes pivotal series like 'After All These Years...', 'Panorama', and 'Together Alone', which demonstrated his exploration of new mediums, techniques, and large-scale works. Meanwhile, his exhibitions such as 'Machines' and 'The Zero Hero', addressed themes like multicultural coexistence and identity.

The conceptual turn in his practice tackled deeper questions about authorship and the nature of art, exemplified by works like 'Compendium of Malaysian Art (COMA)' and 'The Death of a Nation / The Birth of a Nation', which critiqued consumerism and Malaysia's racial divisions. His 'FAUX' series and works like 'Nine Paintings of Bouquets' and 'Stone' examined truth, imitation, and impermanence. Lam's performance pieces, such as '66:06:06' and 'U-Turn', invited viewers to reflect on the passage of time and political inaction.

In his later works, like 'THE SOIL ON WHICH I BLEED' and 'Aesthetics of Silence', Lam engaged with the pandemic, political tensions, and the importance of presence in a digital age. His 2022 'Catharsis' series reflected deeply on physical pain, while 'Blind Side' (2023) focused on creating inclusive art for the visually impaired. He explored cultural dialogue between Malaysia and Singapore, reinforcing the theme of progress and unity in Southeast Asia with his work 'Merdeka Project - In(ter)dependence'. For the 2025 S.E.A Focus held in Singapore, Lam's works explored the human condition through geopolitical conflict, using symbolism, contrast, and crosshair motifs to reflect on war, memory, and the dehumanisation of modern warfare. Throughout his career, Lam has continuously evolved, pushing boundaries and questioning the role of the artist in society.

Lam has exhibited extensively both locally and internationally, receiving multiple awards throughout his career, which includes numerous solo and group exhibitions. His achievements have been recognised by esteemed institutions across Malaysia, Europe, and the USA. His career milestones include a 2015 retrospective, 'Ivan Lam:

TWENTY, showcasing 20 years of his artistic journey at Wei-Ling Contemporary. In 2013, he became the first Malaysian artist to debut at Art Basel Hong Kong with a solo presentation of 'COMA – Compendium of Malaysian Art'. Also, Lam's work 'beLieVe' (2014) sits in Louis Vuitton's permanent collection. Lam debuted at Volta New York in 2016 and was invited to the Karachi Biennale in 2017. In 2019, he represented Malaysia at its first National Pavilion at the 58th Venice Biennale with 'One Inch' (2019), a work exploring dualities and layered meanings. Ivan's work for the 2025 S.E.A Focus was also acquired by the Singapore Art Museum as part of the S.E.A Focus Art Fund.

Ivan Lam has been selected to participate in the prestigious International Studio & Curatorial Program (ISCP) residency in Brooklyn, New York. He is the first and only Malaysian artist to ever be chosen for this highly selective residency, which is recognised globally for its rigorous selection process and its role in shaping the careers of leading contemporary artists and curators.
